Hi Mike,

I just wanted to tell you what an incredible job you did on Wednesday!!! I think half the student body hunted me down to say that you are the best speaker they have ever heard and to make sure we have you back again next year....and that they were ticked off for not getting to be one of the "chosen ones" in the extra breakout session! The breakout session kids thought they were pretty special and made a point of telling everyone else how incredibly funny you were and that they got out of class for another 90 minutes. As for Sonja and I - we agreed with them!! We haven't laughed that hard in a long, long, time!! (That was probably the reason I completely lost my voice and stayed home the last 2 days :) You did such a great job connecting with the kids through humor, but still getting your valuable message across. Thank you!

Merry Christmas!
